PRESIDENT ATTENDS LAST SERVICE HERE

No Demonstration Occurs at Grace Reformed Church.

HIS FAVORITE HYMN IS SUNG

Rev. John M. Schick Makes No Reference to Mr. Roosevelt's Presence His Way Through Crowd Outside.

farewell at one another-he, the outgo-

Nothing in his religious fellowship so around. became him as the leaving of it. It was
Mr. Roosevelt's last day of worship as President, and he observed it with simplicity and dignity. The church observed it in the same mood.

Makes No Reference,

Rev. John M. Schick, pastor, preacher a good, old-fashioned gospel sermon, as is President to his high positi his custom. He did not refer in any way to the occasion, or to its significance. He Washington will be the man for whom it preserved the religious chastity of his is all done-the man who was known at privacy. emple, as he has always done.

But those who followed the litany found little collect imbedded in the ritual, not, to leave and go into strange lands. That was all.

The President greeted a few members by a bank of seats. of the church personally, and then hastened away. A crowd thronged the sidesmilingly. He left the chapel where he room having been rented for $1,000.

In all the eight years the President has been a faithful worshiper. He has probably not missed a half dozen services in ably not missed a half dozen services in a couple of hours the streets were illuany one season. Bonds of affection have minated sprung up between him and the church people, who are, for the most part, far MRS, ELIZA E. THORN DIES people, who are, for the most part, far brought to the church his wholesome ai of democracy and made himself at home among the sturdy class of God-fearing men and women which he found within it. Was Member of One of Oldest Fami-

Plain Sermon Preached. He heard a plain, straightforward Gos pel preached-the kind which he prob ably prefers. The church has never exploited his membership. It has deliber ately sought the background. President Roosevelt was welcomed to its fellowshi; in a Christian way, without any thought of taking advantage of his rank.

The pastor of the church prides himse upon the fact that he has not preached a sermon, or even a paragraph of a sermon, which he would not have preached had the President not been in attendance. He has never referred to public ques tions, as so many latter-day ministers are doing. He has never sought to flatter the President, nor to bring confusion upon his enemies. The Bible was large enough

"Our church has been essentially a church of the common people since its beginning in Switzerland," says Dr. Schick. 'It is the church of the President's ancestors. I think our present church typified to a large degree the early spirit of our denomination. I believe the President found in it a congenial religious atmosphere, and I know he is a deeply religious man.

Taft at All Souls'.

yesterday morning in Ali Souls' Unitarian Church, Fourteenth and L streets northwest. Rev. Ulysses G. B. Pierce, pastor of the church, preached of the joy and ate. Mrs. Thorn celebrated her golden true happiness to be derived from the Christian life. Dr. Edward Everett Hale sides her husband, a son and daughter. assisted in the services.

The President-elect rode to the church in an automobile from the residence of W. J. Boardman, in P street, where he will be a guest until March 4.

PRESIDENT IS HONORED.

Longshoremen's Union Hails Him as Champion of Labor.

from the ranks of organized labor. It is rence was organist.

The resolutions declare that as a part of the body of American wage workers, the association extends to the President unbounded respect in which Theodore Roosevelt is held by the rank and file of organized labor." The longshoremen speak of Mr. Roosevelt as "the apostle of righteous unrest." They describe him as "a personal and progressive force that must leave an indelible impress upon our industrial life, and be a great moral factor for the betterment of humanity."

REFERS TO INAUGURATION.

Rev. Mr. Horton Pays Tribute to Incoming President.

Seventh-day Adventists' Church, in his en route here, are certainly doomed to sermon last night referred to the out- a measure of disappointment. going and incoming Presidents, saying: Judge Taft is a worthy successor to a very worthy predecessor.

We should not minimize the importance of the inauguration," continued thing like this: Rev. Mr. Horton, "which will soon take lasting kingdom with this the greatest of guration. Can you not arrange to have all earthly powers, for the sake of en- Mr. Taft meet them?" couraging us to be faithful to our citizen-death of Joseph McMackin, former resi- upon the telegraph request. dent of this city, at Oak Park, near them?" he said after calming himself.

Joseph McMackin Is Dead.

TAFT NOW AWAITS THE INAUGURATION

Continued from Page One.

from the swinging festoons are suspended the shields of the United States, mounted by the American eagle. Decoration of Houses.

Property owners and merchants of the city have vied with one another and with the inaugural committee in making the usiness sections a forest of waving banof the buildings have been completely ressed in the national colors. Wherever here has been "elbow room" for hammer and nails, the decorators have been at work. A huge knife, drawn down the in His Sermon-Chief Executive building line along Pennsylvania avenue Greets Few Members and Bows would clip off thousands of projectin flags, as a scythe fells the grass of the fields. The houses out in the city, as well, have taken on holiday garb.

The electrical display at night will turn They sang his favorite hymn, "How the down-town section into a brilliant Firm a Foundation." He sang, too, in his zone of glittering light and darting glorious, free way. Then they smiled shadows. Graceful lines of bulbs have been strung across Pennsylvania avenue farewell at one another—he, the outgo-ing President of the United States; they, his fellow-parishioners of the Grace Re-street will be roofed with a concentration of fire that will be seen for miles Down this red, white, and blue way will And probably the least ruffled person in college as the "solid man of his class." Views of the Pageant.

The interest of the public in the prepindeed, extemporized, but spoken with arations has left no doubt in the minds that unmistakable emotional emphasis of the members of the inaugural com which gave a touch of beauty to the un- mittee as to the success of their efforts. spoken farewell. It was a prayer that The erection of reviewing stands was God may look after him who is about commenced unusually early, and every Windows along the line of march have been selling at a premium for days past, and few remain to be sold. The best walk. He bowed his way through it locations have brought high prices, one has worshiped in the eight years of his Yesterday afternoon thousands of per-Presidency without any ostentation or sons turned the Court of Honor into a lies in City.

Father Was Simeon Bassett, Superintendent of Stonework When Capitol Was Being Erected.

Mrs. Eliza Euphemia Thorn, seventyfour years old, member of one of the oldest families of this city, died at 5 o'clock yesterday morning, at her residence, The Algeirs, 120 Maryland avenue northeast. Death was due to general debility

About four weeks ago Mrs. Thorn was taken suddenly ill. She grew steadily worse. Hopes of saving her life were enfor him. The fashions of the day found terday morning, when she became weaker and died.

Mrs. Thorn was the wife of Benjamin T Thorn. Her father was Simeon Bassett. The founder of this branch of the Bass-The founder of this branch of the Bass-ett family came to America in 1621 and settled in Connecticut. The family lived Boardman was also a guest. At the tend the inauguration. The party will When the Capitol was built in Washing-He had six sons and three daughters. The President-elect Taft attended services family owned large plots of ground in the of the martyrs' monument in Brooklyn, at > the attention of Daniel Webster, and for sixty-five years was employed in the Sen wedding last September. She leaves be-The funeral will be held Tuesday after noon from the family residence. Interment will be in Rock Creek Cemetery.

QUARTET SINGS ORATORIO.

New York Avenue Church Choir Gives Rossini Numbers.

The choir quartet of the New York President Roosevelt from all parts of the Cliff, soprano; Miss Pauline Whitaker, gave his approval to the bill.

in the form of a set of resolutions adopt- Dr. Wallace Radcliffe delivered a short address on the life of Mary. Dr. Radnational Longshoremen's Association, of cliffe said the church owed much to the

ASKED TAFT TO MEET HIM.

'an expression of the high esteem and Southern Senator Receives a Re markable Telegraphic Request. Dixle likes Taft. His 'possum feasts and other things incident to his stay at younger set. Augusta set Dixie on fire for him. And Dixie, so far as it can, is coming to see Yale in this period, and enter upon his man, expressing her thanks:

have warmed up to him had he been oth- would indicate, because both have been erwise. But Taft, in the rush and crush at boarding school for several years. of this memorable inauguration week.

Will not be so get-at-able as he was during his tranquil days at Augusta, and the position of Secretary of o ing his tranquil days at Augusta, and Commerce and Labor, to-day. Mr. and Rev. S. B. Horton, pastor of the First two of his ardent admirers at least, now

> Yesterday a Senator from Dixie-he lives at La Normandie--was much disturbed and perturbed on opening a dispatch from one of his most prominent and potent constituents. It read some-

"My sons, Alexander and Lee, will place in this city. But we may be privi- reach Washington by the Southern on eged to contrast the glories of that ever- Monday at 10 o'clock to attend the inau-

Possibly the potent constituent meant ship here and have part in the eternal to ask the Senator to arrange to have the two boys meet Mr. Taft, but that was not what the dispatch said, and the Senator with difficulty suppressed some pic-Word has been received here of the turesque Dixle language in commenting Winnipeg, Manitoba. Prior to the civil "Of course, I can. Simplest thing in the war he was a sergeant in the National Riffes. After the war he was connected with the lighthouse board for years.

Of course, I can be great to go down to the depot and greet them. He will be there to grasp their flesh as they come through the gates. No doubt of that. He has nothing to do but kill time until the any One "BROMO QUININE," that to the March rolls around, anyway. Yes, I'll guarantee he will be on hand to meet Alexander and Lee. I am going to call him up at the Boardman house right now and make the arrangement. It's fixed

And the Senator strode off in the direc

THREE DAYS MORE FOR CITIZEN TAFT

Now Enjoying Respite Before Robert Taft by their friends. Inauguration.

ners and undulating bunting. The sides SUNDAY A STRENUOUS DAY

Holds Conference with President, Discusses Affairs with Congressmen, and Is Guest at Reception and at Senator Hale's Luncheon. Son and Daughter Arrive To-day.

A nation, greedy of his time, will make ed the bullet. in the bosom of his family.

Three days of grace before a four parade will be the mailed hand of a peace-loving nation, lifting a peace-loving light, which beats about the throng is light which beats about the throne is Three days of the simple life before > the Presidency-and the Presidency with a tradition of strenuosity more or less firmly established. Children Come To-day.

His children come to Washington today. Robert, a senior of Yale: Miss Helen, a student at Bryn Mawr, and a view of the pageant is now concealed Taft at the Boardman residence, in P street. They will remain for two or three days in the White House after the inauguration.

The President-elect has no set plans for to-day, and has as yet made no arrangement for a visit to the White House He will spend his time in putting the promenade, as they passed back and forth finishing touches on his inaugural address, and in receiving a few friends and visitors. No social plans have been made

Mr. Taft saw President Roosevelt yes erday directly after attending services in All Souls' Church. He arrived at the almost simultaneously with the President. The latter walked home from church, as is his custom. Mr. Taft is now engaged in the process of familiarizing Washingtonians with the automobile as the official White House vehtcle.

The President and President-elect imnediately launched into a discussion of have been made for a large party. certain features of the latter's inaugural address. There are two or three para-

It is said that as a result of the conthe situation. Mr. Taft said it contained rive early in the week. minutes to read it.

worse. Hopes of saving her life were entertained by physicians until early yesthat Mr. Taft was within. The crowd terday morning, when she became weaker was driven back from the entrance to twenty. They are also expected to arrive with the President. the executive offices, and later grew to to-morrow. clear the grounds.

there for 150 years, and the male members Boardman residence in the afternoon, Mr. come here under the direction of D. A. in a sermon by Rev. Charles E. Guthrie ntified with the Revolutionists.

e Capitol was built in WashingDakota; Senator Hopkins, of Illinois; The No. one of the leading spirits in the erection vicinity of the Library of Congress.

Isaac Bassett, the eldest son, attracted dress some months ago. which Mr. Taft made the dedicatory ad- made reservations at the Hotel Montrose,

Mann Bill Discussed.

Mr. Taft told Senator Kittredge that he would like to have the Mann bill, relat- and register at the National Hotel. ing to the government of the Canal Zone. passed before the session ends. This bill Kittredge told Mr. Taft he was doubtful if there was time to get the bill through. Representatives Overstreet and Landis office subsidy bill through at this session. Avenue Presbyterian Church last night This bill provides for a subsidy for four-Among the many expressions of appressions of appressions and seven numbers from Rossini's "Stateen and sexteen knot vessels carrying ciation of the work accomplished during bat Mater" (The Mother Standing). Mem-mail over new routes in South American his tenure of office, being showered upon bers of the quartet are Mrs. W. H. Shirand Pacific waters. The President-elect country, now that he is about to become contraito; John H. Nolan, bass, and Jo- In receiving the newspaper men in the a plain citizen, comes an eloquent one seph F. Mathleu, tenor. J. Porter Law-afternoon, Mr. Taft made it plain that he had not yet considered foreign appointments. He will not take them up until he is inaugurated, and has the business of the special session well under way.

He was emphatic on this point.

Robert Taft will also be at home from Dixie, so far as it can, is coming to see him inaugurated.

Taft was hale fellow well met in Dixie.

He has been so always. Dixie would not he has been so always alwa of each month until 5 p. m. Interest paid on all accounts.

EDWARD J. STELLWAGEN. GEO. E. FLEMING EDSON B. OLDS...

Capital and Surplus, $2,200,000.

Mrs. Nagel arrived in Washington yesterday, and have apartments at the Ar-It is not officially known whether Mr. Nagel is to be a member of the Taft Cabinet, but his arrival here at this time is taken as virtual assur-ance of the fact.

It is probable that a number of small ante-inauguration events will be ar-ranged in honor of Miss Heien Taft and

The White Automobile

"The white automobile" is already becoming a feature of Washington life, and represents a new triumph for the motor car. The ancient executive stables, oppo site the Corcoran Gallery of Art are being remodeled and refitted for the Presidential machines. Exeunt the equines and trappings of the present administration. Mrs. Taft May Ride with the New

BOY SHOT IN HIS ROOM.

Altemus Found Wounded

After Being Sent to Bed. Robert Altemus, ten years old, is at Casualty Hospital with a wound in his It is a luxury to be a private citizen right thigh, inflicted by a bullet from a of this republic. William Howard Taft 22-caliber revolver. The boy was removed Court Bible for use in taking the oath of says so. He has three days more in to the hospital from his home, 1312 Marywhich to enjoy this luxury, and he hopes land avenue northeast, about 2 o'clock been in use generally in the Supreme to spend the precious hours as his own. yesterday afternoon. Physicians extract- Court for 100 years.

certain demands upon him before March | The boy shot himself with a revolver 4. but citizen Taft, who always has been belonging to his father. The parents sent clination he has always had to serve on a glutton for work, wants to relax just the lad to his room shortly after dinner, the Supreme Court bench. a bit, to have a certain expansive leisure and a few minutes later a report was He said yesterday he desired the old heard. When the parents reached the Supreme Court Bible because it was the boy's room they found him lying on a one with which he would have taken the march on Thursday the essence of the years' run in the Presidential harness bed. He was badly frightened by the path of office if he had availed himself pain in his leg and the sight of a crimthe opportunity to serve on the bench. years' run in the Presidential harness bed. He was badly frightened by the oath of office if he had availed himself of

> The boy's father is not inclined to not to be contemplated by even a strong think his son shot himself accidentally. man without a regretful farewell to his He believes the boy fired the shot in a fit of anger at being sent to his room and told to go to bed, in punishment for some act which did not meet with ap-

DELEGATIONS COMING TO-DAY

available foot of space that could afford Charlie, will all be with Mr. and Mrs. Reservations Made at the Hotels by Inaugural Visitors.

> Several Governors, Their Staffs, and Others Will Reach City To-morrow-Crowds on Wednesday.

The hotels of Washington have booked others who are coming from all parts of the country to witness the inauguration. White House in his big, white motor car Arrivals will begin to-day, but the height of the tide will not be reached until Wednesday evening.

> Preparations to satisfy the needs of the visitors are almost complete. Gov. Herbert S. Hadley, of Missouri will arrive at the Shoreham to-morrow. with his staff and officials. Reservations

Gov. Edwin S. Stuart, of Pennsylvania; Gov. Eben S. Draper, of Massachusetts, graphs relating to foreign relations, which and Gov. George H. Prouty, of Vermont, were particularly considered. They are have had reservations made at the Ralbelieved to be vital by the cautious Presi- eigh. They are expected to arrive to-Senator-elect W. O. Bradley of Kan-altogether about 5,000 words, and estimated that it would take about thirty-five Charles E. Hughes, of New 2 rk; Gov. The quest ninutes to read it.

Simeon S. Pennewill, of Deleware, and whether Mrs. Taft will take the seat The White House lawn was packed with Gov. Charles S. Deneen, of Illinois, have usually occupied by the retiring President proportions the police decided to The Ebbitt is expected to take on the appearance of a girls' seminary as a re-The President-elect and Mrs. Taft took sult of the arrival to-morrow of sixty uncheon at the residence of Senator schoolgirls from Nashville, Tenn., who World Cruise.

ton, Simeon Bassett came here, as super-lintendent of stone work on the structure. Indiana, and Stephen B. White, who was The Now and Then Association, of Bos-The Garret A. Hobart Republican Marching Club, of Newark, N. J., has > and will arrive Wednesday. Club, of Philadelphia, will arrive to-day, Twentieth Century Club, also of the States. Quaker City, will arrive to-morrow.

>
> A party of seventy-five excursionists contradicted by its safe return. At the in affect makes Congress responsible for from New England States, under the di-what the Executive is now doing in the governing of the Canal Zone. Senator rive at the Riggs House to-morrow.
>
> This thought has been shattered."

The Columbus Glee Club, of Columbus, Ohio, has made reservations at the Riggs for 150 members, who are expected to arrive Wednesday. Forty members of the asked for Mr. Taft's aid to get the post- Dayton (Ohio) Glee Club are also expected to arrive on that day.

PRINCE GETS A POEM.

Young Woman Expresses Thanks to Representative in Verse. Some time ago Mr. Prince, of Illinois, received an inquiry from a young wo- includes an entirely different lot of songs, man in one of the departments in Wash- with the exception of Schubert's ington asking for certain information Doppelganger und Erikonig" and Richard about one of the young men of his dis- Strauss' "Cacilie," which are repeated by trict, saying that she had seen his name request. The programme is as follows: Miss Helen Taft will not remain at the White House beyond Saturday or Sunday, and will return to her studies at Bryn Mawr, without any social festivities. She will return in the Easter vacation for a ten days' stay, and at this time will make her bow to the social world as the leader of the Capital's younger set.

In a matrimonial paper, and as he claimed to be good looking and have plenty of money, &c., she and several other young women in the city were interested. A per leader of the Capital's suggested that she write the postmaster of the city where the young man resided. A few days later the Congressman resided.

A few days later the Congressman resided. A few days later the Congressman resided. Miss Helen Taft will not remain at the in a matrimonial paper, and as he claim-

A few days later the Congressman re- 3. Auftrage (L'Egru).

From the paper's announcement he seemed to be it. Is too good to be trusted, each fair lady thinks;
So before calling on Hymen to make the two one.
We'd ask you to help us to straighten this son.
He says he has money, has lands, has health;
But unless he has lore who cares for his wealth?
So we are now in a quandary to know who he is,
That these beautiful maidens may get down to

That these beautiful maidens may get down to

The control of th

Not knowing the privilege you have with your We hear that in Congress you're loaded with graft; But the person who said so surely is daft. For your honesty proved it when on frank you did

You'll find that this Seaton has turned out a trump.

Funeral of James S. Pierce. Funeral services for James S. Pierce clerk in the ordnance division of the War Department since the civil war, will be held at his residence, 610 R street northwest, at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning. Rev. J. Russell Verbrycke, pastor of Gurley Memorial Presbyterian Church, will conduct the services. Interment will be in Congressional Cemetery. Palibearers will be chosen from associates in the War Department and veterans of Meade Post, No. 5, G. A. R. Mr. Pierce was seventy-three years old, and is survived by his wife, two sons, and two daughters

OATH ON OLD BIBLE

In Use in the Supreme Court for a Century.

WILL AVOID USUAL CUSTOM

President on Trip from the Capitol to the White House as a Result of Mr. Roosevelt's Determination to Ignore Old Precedent.

Mr. Taft has selected the old Supreme office next Thursday. This Bible has

In this selection Mr. Taft makes a sentimental concession to the natural in-

Supreme Court Bible. The Supreme Court Bible is a little, leather-bound volume, stained, and slightly frayed by the oaths of a century.

in other inaugurations. The usual practice has been for the clerk of the Supreme Court to furnish a new Bible for the occasion, which afterward is given to some member of the President's family. There have, however,

So far as is known, it has not been been several exceptions. In the first Cleveland inauguration, for instance, Mr. Cleveland selected a little Bible his mother had given to him when he was a boy. In his second inauguraon also this was used.

McKinley took the oath of office the first time on a Bible presented to him by Question of Choosing Successor the negro bishops of the country. It was of the large family Bible type, elaborately mounted and reposing in a polished case President Roosevelt was sworn in with a Bible that had been used to induct him into office as governor of New York State. It is likely Mrs. Taft will ride from to-morrow and Wednesday as the big the Capitol to the White House with the days for the arrival of delegations and new President after he has taken the oath of office.

It has been customary for the outgoing President to accompany the Presidentelect to the Capitol, seated on his right in the carriage. After the oath is administered the outgoing President has accompanied the new President back to the White House, riding on his left.

Mr. Roosevelt's Decision. Mr. Roosevelt announced at a Cabinet meeting more than a year ago, before the Republican nominee had been selected, that he would not return to the White House with the incoming President, but would go at once to the railroad station and take a train for his

This programme has been talked over settled, it is probable that Rear Admiral between Mr. Taft and the President, and Richard Wainwright, now commanding It is said that as a result of the conference the address will be considerably shortened, in view of the exigencies of shortened, in view of the exigencies of the White House after the exercises at

The question being considered now is

SERMON ON THE FLEET. "The return of the fleet" was discussed last evening at Hamline M. E. Church "The homecoming of the fleet has vastly more than a national significance," said the pastor. "It has forced every civilized country to awake to the realization of what we are, and established a precedent who died Saturday night, after an illness what we are, and established a precedent by breaking into the traditions of the past. It makes no difference what nation makes a similar cruise, it will have to Eighth street, Congress Heights, under COWAN—On Saturday, February 27, 1999, at 10:20 p. m., at his residence in Eighth street, Congress Heights, under ROBERT HART COWAN, in the thir-Six hundred members of the Reyburn past. It makes no difference what nation noon at 2:30 o'clock, at his residence in "Every prophecy of disaster has been

SECOND SONG RECITAL

Dr. Ludwig Wullner Will Give Programme at Columbia To-morew. in Washington to-morrow, in the Columbia Theater, at 2:30 in the afternoon. He will be accompanied by Coenraad von Bos, who helped him make a brilliant Piedmont. He is survived by his wife and success here last week. The programme four children.

5. Der Rattenfanger (Goethe). 6. Epiphanias (Goethe).

Der Asra (Heine) 2. Totengraberlied (Holty). 3. Ein Weib (Heine). Das Lied des Steinklopfers (Henckell), by request, Cacilie (H. Hart), by Request,

THE PALAIS ROYAL 50c Hose, mercerized..... $1.00 Hose, French styles ... 25c Swiss Ribbed Vests.... 50c Ribbed Union Suits.... 50c Lingerie, new styles ... 75c Lingerie, new styles... $1.00 Lingerie, new styles. $1.50 Lingerie, new styles. $2.00 Lingerie, new styles. $2.75 Lingerie, new styles. $50 Lingerie, new styles. Jabots

$1.00 Neckwear, hand embroidered

$5.00 Leweiry, new styles.

$1.00 Jeweiry, new styles.

$1.00 Jeweiry, new styles.

$1.00 Hornback Alligator
Rags

TO-DAY OPENING

The Spring Opening with complimentary prices as souvenirs. Ten per cent discount allowed on all Suits, Dresses, Hats, Parasols, Handbags, Jeweled Combs, Dress Trimmings, Laces, and Embroidies.

. 21e	$3.50 Handbags, imported $2.50
39e	$2.50 English Bags, ladies'. $1.98
. 89c	$1.00 Bags, new styles 89e
18e	50c Belts, new styles 44c
39e	$1.00 Belts, new styles 89c
. 44c	$2.00 Belts, new styles $1.60
. 69c	20c "Naiad" Dress Shields 7c
. 88c	$1.00 Lace Nets, 45-inch 75e 75c Val Laces, 12 yards 50e
$1.33	35c Val Laces, 12 yards 25c
$1.79	10c Wash Laces, warranted 5c
$2.20	10c Embroideries, warranted. 7c
	39c Embroideries, 10 inch., 25c
. 19e	$2.50 Auto Hood Veils$1.79
21e	50c Chiffon Vells
44c	25c Handerchiefs, new styles. 21c
	121/20 Handerchiefs, new
89e	styles 11e
21e	25c Ribbon, 5-inch 13c
44c	59c Ribbons, plaids 39c
88e	98c Kayser Silk Gloves 75e
$1.19	$1.25 Kid Gloves, new 97e
	$1.50 Palais Royal Gloves. $1.39
$4.85	$2.50 Kid Gloves, 16-button. $1.59

The Palais Royal, G St., 11th St.

SPERRY TO QUIT BIG FLEET

Admiral Expected to Ask to Be Relieved of Command.

Will Be Left to the Next Administration.

Rear Admiral Charles S. Sperry, com manded-in-chief of the Atlantic battle ship fleet, will to-day present a formal request to the Navy Department asking to be relieved of his command. In view of his large experience in com mand of the fleet, it is probable that he will be assigned to duty as a member of the general board of the navy. Admiral

Sperry will file his request with Secre tary of the Navy Newberry at a conference at the department to-day Sperry has been in command since the ships sailed from San Francisco, July last, on the trip across the Pacific and around the world. He will go on the retired list next September. The question of choosing a successor to Admiral Sperry will be left to the next

It is expected that Rear Admiral Seathird division, will be appointed chief of the Bureau of Navigation, succeeding Rear Admiral John E. Pillsbury, retired. Rear Admiral William P. Potter, comnanding the fourth division, and the ju nior admiral on the fleet, will retain his resent command. Rear Admiral Conway H. Arnold, commanding the third squad ron, will be assigned to the presidency of the naval examining and retiring board early in May, when his squadron is merged into the other squadrons of the

COWAN FUNERAL PLANNED.

Services to Be Held from Residence

This Afternoon. Funeral services for Robert H. Cowan, makes a similar cruise, it will have to Eighth street, Congress Heights, under follow in the footsteps of the United arrangements made by St. John's Lodge, No. 11, F. A. A. M., of which he was a member.

Mr. Cowan was born thirty-seven years ago in Glasgow, Scotland. He came to this country when a boy, and settled in West Virginia, where he obtained em-West Virginia, where he obtained employment in the Baltimore and Ohio shops in Piedmont. He came to Washington navy yard. He was assistant secretary and treasurer of the Grand Lodge, International Association of Machinists; financial keeper of records of St. John's Commandery. No. 32. United Order of the Dr. Ludwig Wullner, the German lieder national Association of Machinists; finansinger, will give his second song recital cial keeper of records of St. John's Commandery, No. 32, United Order of the Golden Cross; president of the Congress Heights Improvement Association, and a member of Lafavette Lodge, K. of P.

SEMINARY GIRLS ARRIVE:

Happy Maidens Seeing the Sights

and Awaiting Inauguration. Eight happy seminary girls, the "we'reglad-that-school-is-out" kind, tripped up to the register at the Riggs House yesterday afternoon, put down their names. and then began taking in the sights.

They'll keep it up until after the inauguration.

LOTHROP—On Friday, February 28, 1909, at 5:40 a. m., MARY RUSSELL, wife of Alvin M. Lothrop.

Funeral from her late residence, 1303 K.

Then they will return to the Southern seminary and their books at Buena Vista, The party is under the guardianship of Huge Wolf Rev. Dr. and Mrs. E. H. Rowe. They didn't seem anxious to let people known just where they came from. are Ethel Oatts, Georgia; Hannah Beard, Kentucky; Helen Hanly, Illinois; Emma Partridge, South America; Evelyn Wilson. Virginia; Fannie Wilson, Virginia; Helen

REMEMBER ROOSEVELT On March 4th

His Policies Were Vindicated in Taft's Election

EVERY LOYAL AMERICAN SHOULD appreciate what Theodore Roosevelt has done in his seven years' war against the SUBLIMATED PAWNBROKERS of WALL STREET. ROOSEVELT

HIS POLICIES HIS ENEMIES HIS FRIENDS INAUGURATION EDITION PUBLISHED MARCH 4TH

WINTEMUTE-SAWYER PUB. CO.

NEW YORK, 17 Battery Place. PITTSBURG, PA., 1005 Frick Bldg

322 Standard Beverages.

Christian Xander's Quality Phone M. 24 909 7th St. N. W.

C. W. TOBOLDT'S Oriental Rug Hospital REWEAVING, REPAIRING, CLEANING. AND STORING. GALLERY OF FOREIGN ARTS, DUPONT CIRCLE.

Day 'phone, N. 4823, Night 'phone, Col. 2917.

FINEST IN TOWN. WASHINGTON DRESSED BEEF. To be had only at the THOS. T. KEANE CO., 43 to 51 Center Market.

When Your Servant Leaves =DON'T WORRY=== Just Telephone an Advertisement :)

The Herald Office

ONLY ONE CENT A WORD

Herald Want Ads Supply Wants

DIED. BYRNE-Suddenly, on Saturday, February 27, 1908, at 2 a. m., MATTHEW, son of the late Matthew and Lucy Byrne. Funeral from St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Second and C streats northeast, Tuesday, March 2, at 9 a.m. Interment private. No flowers.

ROBERT HART COWAN, in the universe seventh year of his age, uneral from his late residence, on Tuesday, March 2, at 2:30 p.m. Interment in Congressional Cemetery. Relatives and friends invited.

year. Funeral from his late residence, 211 Eighth street southwest, Tuesday, March 2, at 2 p. m. Interment private ond year of her age. Funeral from the Church of the Holy Comforter Monday, March I, at 9 a. m. Friends invited. Interment private. Friends invited. Interment private.

HORIGAN—On Saturday, February T.
1999, at 8 o'clock p. m., at 834 Nev.
Hampshire avenue northwest. JEREMIAH HORIGAN, in the thirty-fourth year of his age, son of the late Michael Horigan, and beloved brother of.
Mrs. P. F. O'Connor.
Funeral from 617 D street northwest.
Tuesday morning, March 2, at 8:30 a.
m., thence to St. Patrick's Church, where high mass will be said at 9 a. m.
Interment at Mount Olivet Cemetery.
Relatives and friends invited to attend.

street northwest, Monday, March 1, at MILLER-On Friday, February 28, at 2 p. m., at Atlantic City, N. J., JOHN MILLER, in his fifty-eighth year. Funeral Monday, March 1, at 2 p. m., from his late residence, "Woodlawn," Cleveland Park. Interment at Congresional Cemetery.

PIERCE—On Saturday, February 27, 1909, JAMES S., beloved husband of Maria A. Pierce, aged seventy-three years. Funeral from his late residence, 619 R street northwest, Tuesday, March 2, at 10 a.m.

RIXEY-At the residence of her brother. Surgeon General P. M. Rixey, 1518 K street northwest, at 9 o'clock Sunday evening, February 28, 1909, Miss L. HENRIE RIXEY. Notice of funeral in afternoon papers.

WALLACE-On Friday, February 25, 1908, at 7 o'clock p. m., FRANCIS B., beloved husband of Frances Mason Wallace, in his eighty-first year.

Funeral (private) from his late residence, 1028 Eighth street northwest, on Monday, March 1, at 2 o'clock p. m. Interment at Arlington. (Philadelphia, Pa., papers please copy.)

FUNERAL DIRECTORS. J. WILLIAM LEE, Funeral Director and Embalmer, Livery is connection. Chapel and Modern Crematorium, Modest p 332 Pennsylvania ave. nw. Telephone Main 1335.

301 East Capitol Street. FUNERAL DESIGNS. FUNERAL FLOWERS. Of Every Description-Moderately Priced

GEORGE P. ZURHORST.

G U D E , PHONE M. 274 GEO. C. SHAFFER.

FLUHAL DESIGNS; REASONABLE PRICES.
'Phone 28 Hein. Hith and Eye sta me.

on every already."

And the Senator strode of tion of a telephone booth.

Open Until 5 p. m. To-day. In addition to the regular banking hours, the offices of the Union Trust Co., 15th and H Sts., as in the past, will remain open for the convenience of customers on the 1st, 2d, and 16th